Linda Dewey*

Four targeted sessions are designed to help job seekers gain momentum

March 13: Create a clear goal and a marketable resume that reflects your goals and illustrates how you will contribute

March 20: Face the market: networking, social networking, responding to ads, and working with recruiters

March 27: Ace the interview! Preparation, practice, and follow-up

April 24: Open session to share best practices, successes, and overcoming stumbling blocks

The Career Transitions Group provides a place for those in or anticipating a career transition to learn and practice job search marketing communications skills and meet with other job seekers to support one another.

All job seekers are welcome. There is no charge.
